

Dog Friendly Business of the Year

Eligibility criteria:

- Any kind or style of tourism business that accepts and welcomes dogs and their owners.
- Those entering might be hotels, guest houses, self-catering providers, holiday parks, pubs, visitor attractions etc.
- Entrants must be able to demonstrate how they encourage dogs and their owners to visit or stay and how they welcome them.
- Must be open for business at some point between 8th January and 9th March 2018, so the judges can visit/make a booking. If you are closed for any part of this period, please ensure this is highlighted on your application form
- The judging will be based on this entry form, your website (on desktop, mobile and tablet), and any other website presence that you might have, including social media and review sites that generate customer feedback. If entering via a regional awards' programme and you have already received the report from the judges, please attach this with your application. Even if your business is closed for this entire period, if you are able to receive a visit from a judge you may still be able to enter.
- If you have any questions, please email VEAwards@visitengland.org

The VisitEngland assessment report will be taken into account for any business that holds a current VisitEngland rating. Please note, there is no requirement for businesses to be quality assessed by VisitEngland, the AA or any other assessing body.

If there is any other information (not available online) that you would like to include to illustrate points made in your application, for example, regional or national press coverage, please create and upload a single document in Word or PDF format. Please name this document using your business name and the wording Supplementary Evidence. If more than one document is sent, it will not be made available to the judges (this does not include your regional judging report). Please ensure each piece of evidence in your Supplementary Evidence document is indexed to the relevant question.

Please try to answer all questions as fully as possible, but within the word limit. At the end of each question you may include web links if you have them, to support your answer. These can be in addition to the word count.

TERMS & CONDITIONS

By submitting an entry to the VisitEngland Awards for Excellence, you agree to be bound by the following terms and conditions:

- The closing date for receipt of entries is 5pm Friday 5th January 2018.
- Employees or representatives/agents of VisitEngland are not eligible for entry into the Awards.
- Businesses can enter more than one category, but separate entry forms and supplementary information must be completed for each. Please note, overall category winners from the 2017 VisitEngland Awards for Excellence may not apply for the same category in the 2018 Awards. However, finalists (runners-up) may reapply.
- All applicants must be open for business at some point between 8th January and 9th March 2018, so the judges can visit. If you are closed for any part of this period, please ensure this is highlighted on your application form.
- All applicants must be willing to reimburse the judge and his/her partner on departure for the cost of the mystery visit/overnight stay and/or any meals taken (excluding alcoholic drinks), or any admission or ticket cost as appropriate to the category.
- By entering the Awards, you agree to be part of any publicity undertaken in association with the Awards. If selected as a finalist, you accept and agree that VisitEngland may use or publish any photographs, comments or evidence submitted at any stage in the Awards programme in any media waiving any rights to payment or to inspect and approve a finished product.
- Judges reserve the right to decline an application if it does not meet the eligibility criteria for the category.
- Judges and Judging panels will comprise tourism professionals, appointed for their extensive experience and knowledge of the tourism industry.
- The judges' decisions are final and they cannot enter into discussion about the shortlisting process, choice of finalists or choice of winners.
- In the event of any dispute regarding the awards criteria, application forms, judging process or any other matter relating to the Awards, the decision of VisitEngland shall be final and no correspondence or discussion shall be entered into.
